Spies Hecker's product systems, from the primer through to the clear coat, are perfectly designed to work together, thereby preventing potential material-related paint defects.

In addition to Spies Hecker's efficient product system, refinishers are provided with practical working tools such as workshop posters, indicating the correct product to be used and application recommendations. Spies Hecker also offer training courses, international and SA Colour documentation, formulation retrieval and software management programs.

Spies Hecker develops optimal, practical solutions that make the work of bodyshops easier and help you stay one step ahead of the game.

Ask your distributor about the Spies Hecker Bodyshop promotion today!

Purchase any five of our products on the Spies Hecker bodyshop promotion between the months of July and September, and you could win one of six bi-weekly hampers to the value of R3000.00. You will also qualify to go into the final draw for a 40 Inch LCD Flat Screen TV.
